Dr. A. B. STAB.
 of Clarksville, Dr. Stab was pastor of the Baptist church at this place at the time that these unknown dead were buried. He followed the custom of graves by their names. His prayer was full of the "remembrance of the past," and he told the audience, like a solemn truth, that "these dead are not forgotten."

There were two prominent men in the audience, and in the larger hall, a large number of people were present. The speaker, Dr. Stab, was a man of great power and authority, and his words were full of meaning and truth. He spoke of the "remembrance of the past," and of the "future of the world," and of the "role of the church in the world."

The public reception at the residence of Mrs. Virginia Latham was a grand occasion to the distinguished names to the lips and in the hearts of all our people. From 8 o'clock till 10 o'clock the reception was held in the parlors of the residence, and the guests were entertained with the most refined and elegant of refreshments.

The speaker, Dr. Stab, was a man of great power and authority, and his words were full of meaning and truth. He spoke of the "remembrance of the past," and of the "future of the world," and of the "role of the church in the world."
